2 Boys Held as Burglary Suspects

Guns, TV Sets, Radios In Western Auto Loot; Madison Store Robbed

Two boys, 14 and 15 years old, were being questioned by Madison police today as suspects in the burglary and ransacking of two Madison churches and a coal yard office, and were to be questioned later by Venice authorities in still another break-in and two car thefts.

All of the Madison crimes were discovered about three hours after the boys were picked up as curfew violators by Madison police. Officer William Fanning said they were walking at 14th and State streets about 5 a.m. today.

Madison police said the boys were being questioned in connection with burglaries overnight at the Apostolic Pentecostal Church, 1548 Iowa street, St. Mary's Greek Catholic Church, 1312 Iowa street, and Butch's Coal & Material Co. office, 1331 Iowa street.

Capt. Frank Dutko of the Madison police department said the intruders at both churches caused extensive damage in ransacking offices, classrooms and contribution envelopes in the church vestibules. Tools and office equipment were taken from the coal yard office but later recovered.

Find Loot in Woods
Officers found a power saw, a spotlight, a typewriter and several hand drills in weeds near the coal yard office. Police said they had not yet learned this morning if anything is missing from the churches. Entry was gained at all three places in Madison by forcing doors with a bar or other tools.

Venice authorities plan to question the boys in connection with an early morning break-in today at the office of Stone's Used Car Lot, Market street and Broadway, and the theft of two autos from the car lot.

Venice officers discovered the break-in at 2:20 a.m. when they saw a broken window on the east side of the building and summoned Warren Stone, operator of the car lot, to determine if anything was missing. Stone said a number of old car keys had been removed from the lot.

The Wallace and Hendrickson cars were headed west on Edwardsville road and Guenther was driving east when the mishap occurred.

Babson's Economic Forecast for 1969

Copyright, 1968, Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.
Babson's business and financial forecast for 1969—Wellesley Hills, Mass., Dec. 26.

President Nixon will take over in January in a continuing national and international "state of siege."

His major legacy from the outgoing administration will be Vietnam, a militarily resurgent Russia, inflation, and a domestic situation that is not yet "out of the woods."

WAR AND PEACE
Much of the difficulty in which the United States finds itself today, both at home and abroad, can be laid squarely on the doorstep of a terrible error in national policy.

The great mistake was the belief that we could fight a war in Southeast Asia and conduct "business as usual" elsewhere. The result was an immensely unpopular conflict and the setting in motion of a massive inflationary wave will take over the country with social divisiveness and economic inequalities for an untold length of time.

'Tree of Lights' Tops Goal Of $6000

All 240 Lights Aglow; Baskets Given to 459 Needy Families in Area

The Salvation Army's "Tree of Lights" went over the goal with 141 minutes donations boosting the total to $6464, it was announced by Edwin Reiske, chairman.

All 240 lights are aglow on the Quad-City "Tree of Lights" in Memorial Park, and that's something this community can be proud of, Reiske commented.

The much-needed funds provided Christmas food baskets, clothing and toys for 459 needy Quad-City families, a total of 150 more baskets this year than in 1967.

Distribution of baskets, which began on Monday at the Salvation Army Citadel, 1421 Nineteenth street, proceeded smoothly with all the appointments kept on time, and concluded at 11 a.m. Christmas eve.

Harold Thomas of the Salvation Army reported. Latest donors include Mrs. Golda Bieser, Madison Junior Service Club; International Chemical Union, (two); Sandra Watkins, Carothers; United Steelworkers Local 1785; Subordinate Local 65 of Granite City; BMPIU of A. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Delp; Army Depot A Shift, (two); in Memory of P. T. Mitchell; and the Salvation Army Girl Guides collected $70.

Additional Christmas baskets were raised in Madison today were six more by the Retail Clerks union, three baskets by Linda D. Bottrell, a 4th grade primary grade teacher at Nankin school, and three by the Lincoln Parents Mothers Study club.

A total of $12.75 was raised for the "Tree of Lights" by a group which sang Christmas carols Monday evening in the Quaker Valley neighborhood.

"We cut corners and did not raise this year's goal due to the strikes this fall," Capt. Harold Thomas of the Salvation Army commented. "But we needed this year; we are still about $500 under what was anticipated. We need more, even though going over the goal."

"How did we find enough help? Part of the answer is that the Salvation Army headquarters provided new toys listed as costing $500 and actually cost $200. We were given a great assistance to our toy shop."

More than 400 of about 30 new toys was provided by the Johns-Manville Products Corp. plant, and about the same number by the Department Store, Army and Navy, and Moose Lodge 721 donated 150 stockings for our toy shop.

3 DAYS WITHOUT A QUAD-CITY TRAFFIC FATALITY

Starting with the first pay checks received in the New Year, the nation's working people will pay 4.8% of their earnings toward social security protection, an increase of 0.04 of one percent over the contribution rate in effect since the beginning of 1967.

Social Security contributions are still payable on only the first $7000 of annual earnings. Ralph Brasher, social security district manager, said today. For a person earning $7000 a year, the increase will amount to 60 cents a week; a worker earning $10,000 a year will pay 40 cents a week more.

The increase that starts Jan. 1, was scheduled in the social security amendments of 1967. Those amendments increased cash benefits for all beneficiaries by at least 19%.

Those amendments increased disability insurance and 0.9% for hospital insurance. Younger workers, as well as those who are middle-aged or older, can look forward to getting social security retirement benefits worth considerably more than the total they pay into social security toward that retirement protection Brasher said.

Todoroff Is President-Elect Of Illinois CD Council

Theodore Todoroff, 2801 Yale drive, recently was named president-elect of the Illinois Civil Defense Council, state-wide organization of county and municipal civil defense directors and related officials. Todoroff currently is serving his seventh year as civil defense director for Madison county.

Elected ICDC president for 1968-69, at the annual conference in Aurora, was Phillip J. Bailey, LaSalle county CD director, who formerly served as mayor of Ottawa, Ill., for four terms.

Fred J. Sell of Mattoon was named secretary of the council. M. Burk of Tremont was elected treasurer.

A program analyst with the Automated Logistics Management in St. Louis, Todoroff served as Granite City deputy CD director for past years and assistant chief and special relations officer for the GC Auxiliary Police Corps over a similar period of time before accepting the council directorship. He is the first part-time CD director to serve as president-elect of the city.

Hospital Staff Sets Visitor Limitation

Sister Mary Thomas, administrator of St. Elizabeth Hospital announced Tuesday that hospital officials and medical staff requested that visitation to the hospital be limited to the immediate families of patients because flu is prevalent in the community.

Dr. John Riley, chief of the medical staff, explained "This is a precautionary measure for the safety of the patients so that complications arising from the flu can be avoided."

Visiting hours at the hospital are from 1 to 8 p.m. daily and in the Maternity Ward from 2:30 to 10:30 p.m. and 7 to 8 p.m. with only two visitors a day for each patient.

Fire Caused by Candle Damages Venice Home

A fire that started from a candle burning in the front window of the one-story frame residence at 326 Weaver street in Venice yesterday afternoon damaged a neighborhood residence at 328 Weaver street, occupied by Emma Lucus, at 500 to the house and $300 to the damage to the neighboring house, occupied by Janet Boyd and her family, was estimated at $200.

The Venice fire department received the alarm at 12:50 p.m. when the scene arrived and 20 minutes.

Venice firemen also were called at 2:50 p.m. yesterday to the home of Lawrence Barr, 721 Fourth street where a lawn mower caught fire. Damage to the mower was estimated at $50.

Stops for Train, Hit

An auto driven by Philip Ziegler, a Cahokia, stopped for a train at Missouri avenue and 20th street, was struck by a car driven by Joseph Sullivan, 2015 Barry avenue at 7:25 p.m. Monday.

Social Security Deduction Goes Up Jan. 1

Retirement protection for workers and their families is increased, and so is the protection wives and children have if the worker should die. There is also improved protection for the entire family of the family breadwinner should he become disabled for a period of 12 months or more.

The contribution rate of 4.8% for 1969-70 is actually slightly lower than the 4.9% rate that was scheduled for those two years in the previous law, Brasher said.

Gradual increases are scheduled in the contribution rate until, for 1987 and later, the rate will be 5.9%. Brasher noted that this is only 0.25 of one percent higher than the rate scheduled in the law before the amendments of 1967. This rate includes 5.0% for retirement, 0.9% for disability insurance, and 0.9% for hospital insurance.

New Board Is Formed To Beautify Entire City

Six-Member Group to Work with U. of I. Staff And Federal Funds

A Board of Beautification was named by Mayor Partney during Monday night's city council session to work with a staff from the University of Illinois for development of a program for Granite City to be financed with federal funds.

Mayor Partney, whose selection of the initial six members was approved by the council, said the board's first task will be the development of plans for beautification of the city, along the new drainage ditch under construction along Madison avenue from 16th street to 20th street by the steel mill fence.

Council Member Whitmer suggested the board also start a program for replacement of the thousands of trees on city property removed by the storm department over the past several years. He recommended a program planning to add to the beauty of the city.

Partney explained he had met with an agricultural professor from the University of Illinois during the summer to inspect the city and find a way to hide the junk yards and other unsightly areas at the city entrances.

No Cost to City
"We can do this through an application for federal funds and at no cost to the city," he added.

He named to the board two local clubwomen, Mrs. Irene Hagg and Mrs. Jean Orr. Paul Niebur, president of the Downtown Merchants Association; John Bloodworth, president of the Associated Retailers; Edward Colquhoun, executive secretary of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce; and Wayne Siefer, county horticulture adviser.

In other action Monday night, the council approved resolutions authorizing Mayor Partney to sign new one-year contracts with the Planning & Design Associates for engineering services during the 1969 calendar year—both as motor fuel tax engineer and as consulting engineer with Kenneth Kleberger as the consultant for the firm.

The resolution for designation of the firm as MFT engineer was approved, while the resolution naming Kleberger as consulting engineer was placed on first reading after failing to get a majority vote for its adoption. It was brought out the city has no funds designated in the current 1968-69 budget for employing an engineer as a consultant.

However, both contracts were submitted to the mayor by Alderman Johnson, who said the terms were the same as those set forth for the 1968 calendar year for both MFT and consulting engineer services. Opposing the resolution to designate the consulting engineer were Aldermen Bartosik, Whitmer, Rutledge, Fry and Jarrett. Alderman Nomm had opposed the resolution on the suspension of rules motion.

Earlier, two aldermen—Fry and Rutledge—called for a resolution to transfer $4000 from the city's contingent fund to an existing engineering fund to pay Research Planning & Design.

LEON G. SCROGGINS New City Attorney

Scroggins Named City Atty. for GC; Nomm Protests

Leon G. Scroggins, former Madison county state's attorney, was appointed to the office of city attorney for Granite City during Monday night's city council meeting.

Immediate protest was raised by Alderman Nomm, who said he would challenge the legality of Mayor Partney's appointment since Scroggins lives outside city limits. "We could have tax objections and all sorts of problems. I'll object to this and halt payment of his salary," Nomm remarked.

Scroggins, who lives at 2504 Riverside drive, was not in the council room, although he was in the city hall prior to the start of the council session.

Starts Jan. 1
Mayor Partney announced the appointment would begin Jan. 1, when City Atty. Richard Alton is resigning.

Partney disagreed with the appointment of an attorney who does not reside in the city. "It can be done, other cities do it all the time."

Nomm argued that Granite City has an ordinance that prohibits hiring out-of-town people. "I will not vote for him. This appears to be a political deal. I want for him for state's attorney, and I'm not for him."

HONG KONG FLU

Hong Kong Flu, an entirely new strain of A² flu virus, is now hitting many parts of the country and is expected to be epidemic by mid-winter.

Although vaccines previously available won't help much against the new flu, drug manufacturing companies by working around the clock and by setting up new production facilities are producing enough new vaccine, effective against the Hong Kong virus, to take care of those who need it most.

If you are over 60 or have trouble with your heart or breathing, public health authorities urge that you have your doctor inoculate you with the new vaccine.

Hong Kong flu will be most prevalent this winter. See your doctor if you need protection and get your shots just as soon as the vaccine is available.

151,000 in Illinois Get Food Stamp Aid

Nearly 151,000 persons in Illinois received food assistance through the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Food Stamp Program during October, according to Dennis M. Doyle, Midwest director of Consumer Food Programs.

The total included 135,871 on public aid and 15,028 non-public aid recipients. This is a one percent increase over September participation.

During October participants in 67 Illinois projects purchased more than $2.1 million in coupons and received bonus coupons worth nearly $641,000. This is a bonus average of $5.57 per person.

In 388 Midwest projects, nearly 673,000 persons were in the program during October. Total value of coupons neared $13 million of which 32 percent was in bonus coupons. The district bonus average was $6.09 per person.

By participating in the Food Stamp Program, low-income families can buy more food for less by exchanging the amount of money they normally spend on food for coupons worth more than they paid.

Recipients spend food coupons just like cash at authorized retail food stores for any domestic food. They cannot purchase items like household cleansers, tobacco or liquor.

Doyle urges families not getting enough food to look into the Program by contacting the local public aid office.

Realty Office Being Built On Rt. 111

Start of construction of a mid-county office of the Sobol Realty Co. was announced today by John Sobol. The present office at 1206 Niedringhaus avenue still remain in operation.

The new structure is being erected at 3910 Highway 111, situated on a 1000-foot-long tract on the eastern side of Highway 111 south of Pontoon road.

The Eastport shopping center is to be established at the site in 1969. Projects will include 40 efficiency apartments, a service station, restaurant, cocktail lounge and small shops. Additional improvements also are planned at the site, which is over six acres in size.

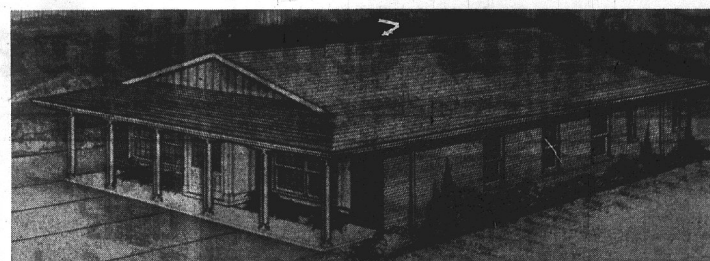

The new office building will have colonial design and a sales area arranged for seven salesmen, with two executive offices and a conference room, plus a property maintenance department and a full basement.

As a part of the developing area between the main portion of the Quad-Cities and the Southwestern campus of Southern Illinois University, the mid-county office will serve Granite City, East Alton, Wood River, Edwardsville, Collinsville and Caseyville and vicinity, Sobol said.

Participants in groundbreaking ceremonies included President Clifton E. Blankenship and Manager Howard Colquhoun of the Chamber of Commerce of the Tri-Cities, Thomas Stalcioff, village president of Pontoon Beach, and Sobol and Raymond Kozielek of Sobol Realty.

Sobol, who resides at 1 Janine court with his wife and four children, was educated at St. Louis University. During the past 12 years, he has developed many apartments and homes, including the Kennedy drive area in Madison and part of Arlington Heights. Activities also include two drive-in retail dairy products facilities and a display system utilizing large image projections.

TB Chest Clinic To Expand After Sanatorium Closes

There will be no interruption in the chest X-ray service and out-patient clinic operations of the Madison County Tuberculosis Sanatorium despite plans to phase out the hospital section of the sanatorium Dec. 31, it was explained by Dr. Luis Ventura, medical director and superintendent.

In fact, Dr. Ventura said, the clinic will be expanded to five days a week instead of the present three days after the first of the year and an evening clinic, primarily for persons employed during the day time, will be operated from 5 to 8 p.m. on Tuesdays.

The chest clinic will continue to operate in the sanatorium building until a new clinic building can be constructed in the northeast corner of the sanatorium grounds.

Clinics will be held Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. until noon. The county TB sanatorium building will be remodeled for operation as a nursing home. A new juvenile detention home also is being constructed on the sanatorium grounds.

Dr. Ventura said that as of last week only four tuberculosis patients remained at the sanatorium, and three of them are to be transferred to Pleasant View sanatorium in St. Clair county. One patient was moved to the Peoria county sanatorium last week.

Occupancy of the sanatorium in Madison county has declined in recent years in keeping with a national trend, due principally to advanced drugs and control methods.

Dr. Ventura said that care of patients transferred to other facilities will be paid out of the annual tax previously used for operation of the sanatorium and out-patient clinic. He said there are nearly 1000 former patients who must report to the clinic periodically for x-rays and a check of their condition.

Treatment Has Changed
There "still is quite a bit of tuberculosis in Madison county," Dr. Ventura commented, but pointed out that it tends to retreat to the pharynx and congested areas. While it still is an infectious, contagious and lethal disease, the treatment approach has changed with much shorter hospital periods necessary for treatment of the disease. Sometimes hospitalization is not even required and many cases can be treated at home, he said.

The county sanatorium was opened in 1926 and at times in the earlier phase of its 43 years' existence was filled to capacity of its 91-bed facilities.

A minimum staff will be maintained at the county's chest clinic after Dec. 31, including field service nurses and a laboratory technician.

Inaugural Excursion May Be Last of Kind

Because of the decreasing use of trains, next month's Special Inaugural Train on Jan. 18 is likely to be the last, according to Wayman Presley of Mankanda, Ill., who is managing the trip to Washington for the President's inauguration.

"This will be the 16th excursion train we have managed since 1960," Presley said, "and from present indications it may be our last one as well as our last to an inauguration." He said it could be that the public senses this because reservations are being received early and rapidly. With a month to go, the train already is more than half reserved, Presley said.

With completion of the interstate highway system scheduled for 1972, there probably will be no rolling stock available for any future special inaugural trains, he noted. In fact, there are many who feel that that few if any passenger trains will operate beyond 1972.

The Nixon Inaugural Special will leave St. Louis at 9 a.m. Jan. 18 and pick up passengers at Carlyle, Salem, Florida, Olney, Lawrenceville, Vincennes and Seymour. It will discharge its passengers in Baltimore and they will be transferred from there by bus to the inaugural ceremonies and Washington, D. C., sightseeing, returning by train on Jan. 22.

Local Sailors Complete Cruise Around World

Two Quad-City Navy men have returned to the United States aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS America after completing an around-the-world cruise that started April 30.

Among the America's several thousand crew members, 32nd Signalman Third Class Donald L. Kelley, USN, son of Mrs. Cassie A. Finley, 2218 Iowa street, and husband of the former Miss Patricia L. Mathon, 125 Troekler lane, Mitchell, and Seaman Apprentice Edward Branch, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Branch Jr., 227 Carver street, Madison.

The 7½-month cruise was interrupted by a tour of duty with the U. S. Seventh Fleet in the Gulf of Tonkin, off Vietnam, where the America spent four 30-day combat periods conducting flight operations against enemy forces.

During these periods, planes from the 73,000-ton aircraft carrier flew daily missions disrupting supply lines from North Vietnam into the south. Except for brief port calls at Subic Bay in the Philippines and Yokosuka, Japan, the combat operation took place from May 31 until Oct. 29.

While homeward bound, the America visited the Philippines, Australia, New Zealand and Brazil.

Dividends of more than $12 millions will be paid during 1969 to 237,594 Illinois world war I and world war II veterans holding GI insurance policies, according to John B. Naser, manager of the Veterans Administration regional office in Chicago. Beginning Jan. 1, dividends will be paid on the anniversary dates of the policies, Naser said.

Plan Commission Approves Permit For Car Wash

Petition for a special use permit to construct a combination car wash and service station unit on lots at 2826-30 Nameoki road by Harold Mainier, operator of Jiffy Car Wash, have been approved by the City Plan Commission. The property now is zoned C-1 and is occupied by two houses and a package liquor store.

Mainier obtained zoning permits from the city building inspector's office last week to remove the present structures on the lots. Mainier said his building plans will depend upon the city council approval of the plan commission recommendation to grant the special use permit. Razing costs were estimated at $1000 on each lot.

William Hoelscher, chairman of the Plan Commission, presented copies of a new subdivision land ordinance prepared by the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Plan Commission to city planning board members and announced that public hearings on that ordinance and a new proposed zoning ordinance, also prepared by SIMAPC, probably will be scheduled next month. He said hearing dates on the zoning and subdivision ordinances will depend upon action by the city council on the long-range development program.

Awaits Council Action
Recommendations that the council approve the long-range development program have been submitted to the council by the City Plan Commission. The commission also approved, subject to a new plan plan defining setback lines, a petition by Amco Investment Co. for an R-5 multiple family zoning at 2401 Delmar avenue for a proposed new apartment construction.

Petition for a special use permit by Dr. Vasil Vasileff for establishing dental offices at 2861 Madison avenue, a single family residence area, was disapproved and tabled pending the filing of further information.

The board also approved a petition for subdividing a tract of land at Nameoki Village into three lots. Ralph Morris is owner of the tract.

An ordinance for the Nameoki Village plat was approved by the City Council Monday night. A petition by Andrew Rapoff and Walter Rozoycki of Rozoycki Realty Co. for rezoning of five lots at East 23rd street and Nameoki road from C-1 to C-2 also was approved. The petition requested the rezoning for future location of commercial buildings.

Services at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 3501 Delmar avenue, will begin at 10:45 a.m.

Broadcasts Vary

Music Helps Maintain Morale of Infantrymen

First Lt. Vincent V. Passero Jr., whose parents, Major and Mrs. Vincent V. Passero reside in quarters at the Granite City Army Depot, is officer in charge of Radio Lai Khe (KLK), currently operating in Vietnam to help maintain the high morale of soldier in the First Infantry Division.

To aid in achieving this goal, Radio Station KLK is in the process of receiving new equipment valued at $21,000 financed by the Post Central Fund. Installation of the equipment will make it possible to broadcast simultaneously on AM and FM, enabling the station to better satisfy the differing tastes of division personnel.

LT. Passero noted that the FM band will concentrate on classical music, while the AM channel will specialize in more "popular" music, which generally appeals to the younger servicemen. "The new equipment will give our broadcasts a professional, state-of-the-art quality," commented the officer, stressing it was selected with the intention of better serving the present listening area rather than to expand it.

High-Speed Data Network in State For Police Depts.

Illinois "LEADS," a high-speed data transmission network, soon will enable Illinois police and sheriff's offices to get "hot" information needed for all kinds of criminal investigation in fractions of time.

Supt. Albert S. Hinds of the State Police said 135 Illinois police and sheriff's offices have been committed to the system. Included are 87 municipalities, 20 counties and 28 state police terminals that will be phased into the network as LEADS becomes operational between March and June of 1969.

LEADS means Law Enforcement Agent Data System and Illinois' LEADS will be based on the computer data bank to be installed in the Department of Public Safety in February 1969.

Message transmission and return time (to and from) the FBI's National Crime Information Center in Washington, D. C., is two-tenths of a second. The man in the squad car can call the license number of a suspect to his dispatcher, then have it checked out nationwide in the time it takes to halt the suspect.

Boilermakers 575 Distributes Baskets

The Boilermakers Union Local 575 and the employees of the A. D. Smith Corp. plant contributed a total of $500 towards the purchase of canned foods for Christmas baskets for needy families at the holiday season.

Melvin Hill, secretary-treasurer of the union, was assisted in purchasing the food at Cohen's Food Market by a committee including Bill Warfield, president of the local, James Cox, James Champion, Edw. Clemons and Lynn Hill.

The baskets will be sent to employees who are on the sick list and not employed at the present time.

"When a Division man returns to the states, he will at least be up-to-date on popular music," Specialist Sherman commented.

Most of the music played in the form of taped shows sent from the States, which still contain the commercials. "We don't cut these spot announcements," explained Specialist Sherman, "because they give our listeners more of an impression of a stateside program." He said that they have received a lot of favorable response to the commercials.

LT. Passero and SP4 Sherman stated that much of the success of the station has been due to stateside support in supplying records and tapes. They estimated that at any given time, KLK has seven out of the top ten tunes in the United States.

Survey Shows Need for Traffic-Crosswalk Light at Frohardt School

Traffic and pedestrian studies completed last week by the Granite City police department showed a pedestrian crosswalk signal light is needed on Johnson road at Frohardt grade school.

The police report was presented to the city council Monday night by Alderman Whitmer, and an immediate vote was taken to forward the report to the state highway department with a request for the installation to be carried out with motor fuel tax funds.

Emphasis was placed on the need for a pedestrian light, because of the controversy over the regular signal lights installed along Nameoki road at Kirkpatrick Homes.

The council had wanted pedestrian crosswalk lights, and the regular lights have resulted in traffic tie-ups when there are no pedestrians or side street traffic. A meeting with state highway officials is to be arranged to determine if those lights on Nameoki road at Pershing avenue and at East 25th street can be revised or at least placed on flasher for Nameoki road after 6 p.m.

The state also is to be asked to reschedule the lights at the Nameoki-Felling-Johnson road intersection to activate them earlier in the morning.

Traffic counts at Frohardt school showed 49 pedestrians and 549 vehicles in the morning hour, and 71 pedestrians and 826 vehicles during the afternoon hour when school is dismissed.

Ice Patch Problem
A recommendation by Alderman Johnson for police to place barricades on ice patches which develop on streets, he pointed out there were two accidents within a short time on Johnson road when a car in the ice patches had frozen over the weekend.

Objections were raised by other aldermen over possible jurisdictional dispute with other city departments. Johnson pointed out the street department could not be called out every time just to cinder frozen puddles, but that police were constantly on patrol and could do the job.

The motion was voted down. Council members voted for preparation of a letter of acceptance for the sanitary sewer lines constructed by General Contracting Co. and the city and scattered sections of the city.

$500 for Repairs
Alderman Johnson, chairman of the Special Sewer Committee, said he had conferred with the project engineer and contractor, along with Street Supt. William Warfield, and the street department will carry out necessary repairs during the winter, with the contractor providing $500 to cover the costs.

The contractor still will have the responsibility for any major work that might develop by next spring and will be responsible for the defects in the lines for a period of one year from the time of acceptance of the project, Bartoski said.

Council members agreed the "old Sewage Treatment Plant," headed by Alderman Moerlein, should carry out negotiations with the Operating Engineers Local over the need for a "X" help at the treatment plant.

Moerlein pointed out there were three subcommittees of the old committee, the one appointed by the mayor and the one appointed by the council. "Which one do you want?" Bartoski replied that he had meant the committee which had conferred with the union earlier this year. "That's the one you headed," he told Moerlein.

Boyd, who had seconded Bartoski's referral motion a week earlier, said he also had meant the committee headed by Moerlein.

The union is requesting a second man on the midnight shift as a safety factor and for an added operator on the day shift. The committee is to study the request.

Plan On 1st Reading
Placed on first reading was the city's Long Range Development Plan, which would give the city planning jurisdiction extending 1 1/2 miles beyond the city limits.

The program was the subject of a public hearing in November, and was developed by Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission for the city, park district, school district and housing authority.

Objections were raised by Alderman Nunn, who said he did not agree with the planning for West Granite and the lack of planning for movement of traffic once the Great River Road is completed to Niedringhaus.

"You won't get this passed tonight," Nunn told Alderman Fry, who moved for first reading of the ordinance. Nunn refused to read it, and the document was moved by Fry. When it came to a vote, it was 4-6, Fry moved for first reading, and that motion carried.

9-to-5
Alderman Johnson repeated objections made last week to the 15 arrests for wrong-way violations in the recently changed 2500 and 2600 blocks of Adams street. "Police shouldn't tell the people to call their aldermen," he said.

He said warnings should first have been issued, and he asked for a legal opinion for eliminating the court costs similar to parking meter violations. He was advised by Alderman Whitmer that state laws, rather than city ordinances, cover procedures for handling "moving traffic violations."

An ordinance was adopted establishing a 20-foot no-parking zone on the north side of 21st street west from Washington avenue. The law was approved over an objection by Whitmer who said it was unnecessary and that only a no-parking sign was needed since state law prohibits parking within 20 feet of an intersection.

Council members approved a routine bill and sent leave of December. The monthly financial reports for sewer systems were accepted and placed on public display at the city hall.

Virgil Fichter, 65, Dies at Quincy, Ill.

Virgil C. Fichter, 65, of 1109 Ohio street, Quincy, a pioneer aviator and former local resident, died at 2:55 p.m. Tuesday at his home, following a heart attack. He had been ill with a heart ailment the past few years.

He was reared in Quincy. Mr. Fichter was graduated in 1931 from Parks Air College. He returned to Quincy where he operated a flying school and commercial transport service for several years.

Widely-known for his aviation skills, from the mid-to-late 1930s, Mr. Fichter delivered by air the Quincy Herald-Whig, dropping the newspaper from a light plane which he slowed to speeds of less than 45 mph over the Missouri communities of Falmouth, Monroe City, Honeywell, Chelbina and Clarence. During the years he held the newspaper contract, he reportedly missed only one day's delivery when gale force winds and the Herald management prevented him from taking off.

In 1940, Mr. Fichter moved to Miami, Okla., where, under contract with the U. S. Army, he instructed British Air Cadets in flying at the Spartan School of Aeronautics. After world war II, he commuted regularly for companies and other private corporations throughout the midwestern and southern states.

He resided in Granite City for two years, period about a decade ago. For the past two years, he had operated a tavern in the Quincy area.

General Steel Net Loss for Quarter; Orders Increase

Strikes at three key divisions of General Steel Industries, Inc., cost a total of eleven weeks of production during the fourth quarter of 1968 and will result in a net loss for the quarter with an adverse effect on the company's earnings for 1968, W. Ashley Gray Jr., GSI president, said Tuesday.

A strike at the Castings Division of GSI, Granite City, which affected 200 employees, ended Dec. 17. Strikes were also recently settled at GSI's National Roll Division, Avonmore, Pa., and Ludlow-Saylor Wire Cloth Division, St. Louis.

"While the strikes were most unfortunate, we look forward in 1969 to the return to more normal operations," Gray said.

"We have an excellent backlog now at $118,000,000, approximately $25,000,000 more than a year ago," he said.

"Railroad orders at the Castings Division have shown an encouraging increase in recent months."

"Significant progress is being made at St. Louis Car Division, where we have a good backlog of rapid transit cars. Problems related to design changes and manufacturing difficulties encountered there recently are now clearing up," Gray said.

Social Security Office Staff Answers Questions

The Social Security Administration has compiled a series of question and answer articles for publication in the Press-Record as a public service to Quad-Citizens.

The first in the series, prepared by Ralph Brasher, district manager of the East St. Louis office, Room 104 at 650 Missouri avenue, follows:

Q. My 28-year-old brother is very badly disabled but could not get disability benefits last year because he had not worked long enough. Is there anything in the new social security law that could help him now?

A. Recent changes in Social Security now require much less work credit in order to qualify for disability for workers under age 31. You should urge your brother to contact the nearest Social Security Office promptly. Q. I understand that a disabled widow can receive social security benefits if she is between 50 and 60 years old at a reduced amount. Will the payment be increased when she becomes 62?

No. Q. What do you mean by the term outpatient hospital services?

A. When you go to the hospital for diagnosis or treatment and you are not admitted as a bed patient, the services you receive are called outpatient hospital services.

Q. I started receiving my wife's benefit when she was 62 years old at a reduced amount. Will my widow's payment be reduced since I drew a reduced widow's payment?

A. No. A widow filing at age 62 or later received 82½% of her husband's amount. Since

Cannas and Dahlias

Once these garden favorites freeze down, prompt digging and storage is important. Storage in cool soil seems an ideal way to preserve these bulbs, but not in a cold, ideal situation for rotting of the bulbs.

Once frost has killed down the tops, immediately dig the clumps for storage. Cut off the tops below the soil mark to prevent rotting. Leave most of the soil on the clump. A cool corner of the basement is an ideal storage area.

Mouse Control

Landscape plantings and evergreens are an excellent fall and early winter hideout for mice.

Migrating mice from nearby fields and ditches use the leaves and evergreen needles as a comfortable hide-out. Tender bark of your landscape plants and flowering bulbs are often a tasty lunch.

Prepared mouse and rat baits will prevent these mouse problems if you take action during mild weather. Wet weather may ruin the baits unless you provide watertight shelters. Open milk cartons, tar paper tubes or short pieces of drain tubing are ideal. Place these shelters in dense shrubs or beneath leaf drops but available to mice. Check these bait stations every week.

If you are concerned about pets and children discovering these poison baits, use mouse traps. These same shelters and peanut butter bait will be just as effective.

a board, but that the keys did not fit any cars that now were on his lot.

Missing from the lot was a 1963 black over white convertible without license plates, and a 1963 white two-door hardtop with a dealer's license. Both cars were found a short time later, the hardtop in the 1000 block of Market street and the convertible in the 1500 block of Collinsville avenue.

Police said the two boys had several keys in their pockets when picked up, bearing tags similar to those used at the car lot.

Store Hit Christmas Day
Burglars entered the Western Auto store, 20th street and Grand avenue, and stole a large assortment of merchandise, it was reported at 2 a.m. today. An inventory was being taken today to determine the loss. A door on the Grand avenue side was shattered.

The store included 15 to 20 shotguns and rifles, three color television sets, several portable television sets, batteries, tires, battery chargers, walkie talkies and radios. The TV sets were chained to carts and the carts were broken.

The store was ransacked; a showcase was broken and glass was scattered throughout, according to Lyle Tatum, proprietor. Five or six men were believed to be involved.

Madison Store Robbed
Two armed men, both wearing scarfs as masks, held up and robbed the American Sales store, 314 State street, Madison, about 6:30 p.m. Monday and escaped with from $150 to $170 which they took from the cash register.

Mrs. William D. Harrison, operator of the store, said the two men walked into the store and ordered her and a clerk, Lillian Wilson, to lie on the floor. At that point, Mr. Harrison entered the store from a rear room and also was forced to lie on the floor while the men rifled the cash register. They also took a $4 check, Mrs. Harrison reported.

She said one of the men, who was short, heavy set and weighed about 165 pounds, carried a snub revolver, while the other man, who appeared to be in his early 30's, carried a large caliber, blue-steel automatic.

The men escaped in a blue, 1962 model auto, driving north on State street, police were told. A house on the 2300 block of Waterman avenue, whose owner reportedly was absent from the city, was entered by burglars on Monday, a neighbor informed police at 8 p.m. A list of missing items was unable to be compiled until the householder's return.

Police said entry may have been gained through a sliding rear door into a kitchen area. Pry marks were noted on the door and an overhead garage door was unlocked. Bedrooms in the house were ransacked with drawers opened and items scattered about the floor, the report said.

Burglars Loot Diner
Burglars broke into Nick's Diner, Broadway and Market street, Venice, early Tuesday morning and stole $16 in change from the cash register and a large quantity of merchandise. Police reported the theft was discovered at 4:30 p.m. when the rear door was found forced open. The thieves took two boxes of cigars, eight cartons of cigarettes, two wrist watches, two radios, a box of candy bars, doughnuts and rolls. They also broke open the juke box and took an undetermined amount of change from the coin box.

Clarence Edwards, 3313 West Point place at State Park, reported to county authorities Christmas Eve that his home had been entered and

Prior to his announcement of Scroggins' appointment, Mayor Partney reminded council members they had not officially accepted the resignation of City Atty. Allen, submitted last week. In the letter, Allen said he planned to devote more time to his private law business, which would be impossible with the increasing amount of city legal business.

Council Studying Extensions for Sewer Projects

Taken under advisement by Granite City council was a letter from S. M. Wilson Co. requesting extensions of time for completing three phases of the storm water drainage system.

The contractor stressed that adverse weather conditions as well as the city's delay in obtaining easement for the large drainage ditch on Granite City Steel Co. property stalled the project and forced him to switch workers from two other sections of the project to speed up work on the ditch.

M. E. Wilson, contractor, said the ditch project was delayed 67 days because the city failed to get the large easement, and 25 days because of the weather—a total of 92 days. Installation of the 36-inch drainage pipe in the area of Victory drive was delayed five days for easement problems and additional days by the weather and revisions in the work force to speed up the open drainage ditch. A total of 10 added work days was requested.

For the other phase of the project—the installation of smaller lines throughout the city—the contractor is requesting an additional 64 days. He explained weather and the need to use workers assigned to this job to work on the major ditch caused the delays.

Engineer Says, "Justified" Project engineer Mervin Grant of the H. W. Lochner Co. told council members the extensions were justified. However, council members voted to refer the request to the Special Sewer Committee headed by Alderman Bartosiek to meet with the contractor and engineer.

Mayor Partney urged immediate action on the contractor's request, pointing out that the phase of the contract calls for a Dec. 26 completion date, and any delay in granting the extension might result in a tie-up of federal funds from the Housing and Urban Development agency.

Engineer Grant was called upon several times to repeat his recommendation for granting the extension, as he was criticized the numerous excavations along the streets. He emphasized the still because of the delay in getting the easement. He added that many of the excavations have to remain until the ditch is completed and tie-ins can be completed to divert storm water.

Bartosiek commented that he was aware of the easement and weather problems but believed the committee should study the number of days extension requested.

When Partney asked the engineer once again if he would recommend the time extensions and the engineer answered, "Yes," Moerlein called for the vote on referring the request to the committee. "Let the committee make the recommendation," he said.

HOLIDAY BRIDE. Mrs. Michael J. Farrell Jr., the former Ingrid Bauer, a daughter of Drs. Otto and Maria Bauer, 3214 Princeton drive, whose wedding took place Monday evening at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Miss Ingrid Bauer Becomes Bride of Michael Farrell

Miss Ingrid Bauer, a daughter of Drs. Otto and Maria Bauer, 3214 Princeton drive, was married to Michael James Farrell Jr., a son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Farrell sr. of 1590 North Woodlawn-avenue, Ladue, Saturday evening at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

The wedding reception was held in the Mayan Room of Trader Vic's restaurant in St. Louis, a setting of white candles in silver candelabra on the bride's table and centerpieces of white poinsettias and holly on the smaller tables. After a trip to Vermont the newlyweds will reside at 3520 Laclede avenue, St. Louis.

The bride was graduated from Washington University with a B.A. degree and earned her master's degree at Ohio State University. She is presently working toward a Ph.D. at Washington University.

Mr. Farrell was graduated from St. Louis University and is now in his final year at St. Louis University College of Medicine.

For her veil the bride chose a custom made split mantilla lavishly trimmed with heirloom lace to match the gown. A headpiece embellished with droplets of steel pearls held in place the veil and the bride carried a cascade bouquet of pink Sweetheart roses, stephanotis and gardenias of variegated ivy.

Miss Anne Pepper of Toronto, Can., was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Constance Majka of Belleville, Mrs. Thomas Elmer of Columbus, O., and Mrs. Nicholas Millianis of Miss Margaret Ann Hutchings of Granite City.

The honor attendant and bridesmaids were dressed alike in deep rouge velvet Empire gowns with slim floor-length skirts trimmed at the bottom with wide tapestry bands and touches of deep ivory and green for contrast. The sleeveless bodices had cowl necklines. All held colonial bouquets of red Escort roses and variegated ivy.

The bride's young sister, Christine Bauer, dressed like the older girls in rouge velvet with neck and sleeves finished with ivory French lace, carried a miniature bouquet like those of the maids.

Timothy Farrell was best man for his brother, and his groomsmen and ushers included Ens. Thomas Albus, USN, of St. Louis; Kevin R. Farrell, another brother of the groom; Joe O. Bauer, the bride's brother; Paul Shuff, William P. Cooney, John C. Purcell and Frank Merenda, all of St. Louis.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Bauer chose a floor-length

MADISON NEEDS IDEAS, DISCUSSIONS, ACTIVITIES
To the Editor:

I've grown up in Madison. I'm getting worried.

The present 20-year-old machine is still here.

Elections are controlled, since the special interest group controls tavern licenses, vending machine licenses, city jobs, school jobs, all sorts of jobs, city money, tax money and the records.

I am not complaining because the Mayor's industrial park looks like another political economic tool.

I'm not complaining because E. J. Miller, the city controller, fire chief, secretary to recreation board, voter registrar, secretary to the police board and hunting and fishing license commissioner has only six city jobs that I remember while there is an unemployment problem here.

I'm not complaining because Dennis Nicholas, deputy sheriff, cleaner, professional photographer, has a high-paying city treasurer's job with expense account.

We've been kept in the dark on bridge money for years running the city or departmental money in arid molded, conditioned and repressed are leaving this town as soon as they're old enough.

I'm complaining because, relative to other areas, all of Madison is becoming a "ghetto."

We need meetings... discussions in everybody's houses, meetings of people interested in the area, people with ideas, maybe even leaders.

Madison could probably use projects financed with funds raised by benefits, dances, tournaments, which would at the same time make the town a little more interesting so our kids don't have to get their kicks by destruction.

We need a more aware library and some open-minded, generous merchants.

This is only one man's opinion.

Permissiveness Unfairly Blamed?

(McLean County News, Calhoun, Kentucky)

It is fashionable nowadays to blame all the problems of the younger generation on the "permissiveness" encouraged by Dr. Benjamin Spock.

At the same time, commentators frequently point out that there is practically no juvenile delinquency among the Chinese-Americans. And this is in spite of the fact that most of them live in over-crowded, run-down, low-income ghettos.

An article in a recent issue of Transaction Magazine reports one characteristic in which the Chinese families differ from white families.

The Chinese-Americans are more permissive and less aggressive than other Americans.

A teacher at Mount Holyoke College spent a summer in New York's Chinatown studying the families there. He found that

1. Chinese lead stable family lives.
2. They have little divorce.
3. Chinese women honor their men.
4. Responsibility for children is shared by both parents.
5. Chinatown children are allowed to stay up late, are weaned later, are toilet-trained later.

This doesn't necessarily prove that permissiveness makes better juveniles. But it does show that among Chinese-Americans, permissiveness does not produce behavior problems. We may have to find something else to blame the younger generation on.

Expanded Madison Vocational Program Could Help Reduce Drop Outs, Jobless

Proposed expansion of the Madison high school vocational instruction program could prove to be of real value to students of the Madison district, which includes not only Madison but about half the city of Venice.

It is well recognized that education not only must train young people how to live, but how to earn a living. By greatly increasing the range of craft subjects open to teenagers, as is contemplated, the school system could produce graduates better able to find jobs, and also could reduce the number who drop out of school due to lack of interest in the curriculum.

The vocational plan would complement an expanded academic program now in its second year.

It often costs to get rid of the things we get for nothing.

Expense Account Probe Shows Value of Electing a 'New Broom' Periodically

Have some state employees been gouging taxpayers by padding their expense accounts? We don't know, but we have confidence that the new legislature, when it meets in general election, will fairly determine any abuses that have occurred, and sue to recover lost funds where justified. The investigator he has appointed, former State Attorney Ackerman of Sangamon county, has a record of success and expertise in such probes.

The Better Government Association has cited practices rampant in the Department of Financial Institutions, that appear to warrant study.

Among the alleged tactics is mass purchase of round-trip railroad tickets for which the state picked up the tab; in reality, these were for transportation between Chicago and Springfield offices, on the one hand, and the home towns of employees, on the other hand.

A "working headquarters" designation for homes was used in such cases. Even U. S. Senators are restricted to rigid limitations in such travel, but apparently not certain state employees.

It is not necessary to charge widespread corruption to justify such an investigation; scattered instances of improper conduct can and undoubtedly do occur in many administrations without the knowledge of elected officials.

But human nature and politics being what they are, the situation bolsters the argument for an occasional change in state officeholders. No one official is indispensable, and "a new broom sweeps clean."

4 States Base a Tax On a Fraction Of the Income Taxes Paid to U.S.

(Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois)

Various kinds of Illinois state income tax proposals have been discussed. There is one other form that a state income tax could take.

That would be a flat-rate income tax, placed on the individual's or the corporation's total federal income tax.

For instance, if an individual paid $5000 in personal federal income tax, and if a flat-rate income tax of 10% of that $5000 were levied, it would result in a $500 state income tax bill for the individual, in addition to his $5000 federal tax bill.

This method of levying a state income tax would be the simplest method from an administrative point of view. All of the checks and balances of the federal income tax system would be automatically built in.

The state would not have to worry about whether an individual reported all of his income correctly; that problem would remain for the federal government.

Illinois government would merely take the figures from the U. S. government income tax receipts and levy a flat-rate income tax on them. The state would not incur many administrative problems.

At present there are four states which administer a personal state income tax in this way. They are Alaska, Michigan, Nebraska and Vermont.

Of these four, Vermont has the highest rate, 20% of the federal tax liability.

Constructive State Attitude on Hillside Drainage, Constitution Convention Sites

As he prepares to begin his duties as governor of Illinois, Richard B. Ogilvie has taken two praiseworthy stands.

After indicating his support for certification of the state as the local-level sponsor for federally-assisted hillside drainage improvements in this region, the governor-elect has referred the plan to his legislative counsel, William Hanley, for study in developing 1969 legislative proposals for General Assembly consideration.

An estimated 55,000 acres would be protected from flooding through bluff area drainage financed primarily by the U. S. However, the non-federal share would cost several million dollars, and there is no agency below the state level which could raise the money in an equitable manner from those who would benefit.

Mr. Ogilvie also has said he favors Illinois constitutional convention delegates convening in not one but perhaps a half-dozen locations at various times in order to take testimony from those who wish to suggest wording or objectives of a new constitution, mentions state university campuses as possible sites.

If a new constitution is to have much chance of public approval, there must be a free exchange of ideas between citizens and officials, with widespread public opinion in the soundness and adequacy of the tentative constitutional provisions that result.

The proposal for a series of meetings in different parts of Illinois could go a long way toward attracting such support.

Weighted Voting Not the Right Answer in Revising County Board Election Process

The question of how to live up to the "one man, one vote" goal in county legislative bodies is destined for serious consideration soon by Illinois legislators, and possibly constitutional delegates, as well as officials of many other states.

Weighted voting by various county board members would seem to have little chance of approval because of its awkwardness.

Population fluctuates, and some county boards might find one or two of their members becoming all-powerful, casting a majority of the votes (representing the number of their constituents) on an issue regardless of the views of more numerous but less powerful legislators.

The prospect of such power, and the danger that it would be abused, surely is not attractive to most citizens.

There is somewhat of a precedent in party balloting at the county level. When a ballot measure is put to a vote, precinct committeemen cast the number of votes recorded in their neighborhood for their party in the previous election. But the law requiring that precincts be divided when they become cumbersome is a self-regulating factor limiting the authority of any individual.

The basic reason weighted voting is receiving much study is the possibility that some supervisors' hopes of perpetuating the township system.

As readers are aware, townships provide road, relief and certain other services in unincorporated areas and also serve as a unit of the county, electing a supervisor and, in more populous areas, one or more assistant supervisors.

The supervisor serves on the county board and as chief administrator of his township; assistants' only duties are as county board members.

Although bigger townships have more representation in county legislatures than do sparsely settled areas, interpretations by the U. S. Supreme Court indicate that such lines can have little or no standing in choosing representatives for the larger governmental subdivision, the county. County boundaries, in turn, are not adhered to when electing state legislators.

In view of this background, a lesser role for townships in Illinois appears, likely, and advisable.

50 YEARS AGO

DECEMBER 26, 1918

Seventy-six individuals, firms and banks of Madison county have invested $1000 each, the maximum amount, in war savings stamps. Charles Boeschstein, county sales chairman, reports that 23 of the total are located in the Tri-Cities.

Has the secret of perpetual motion been discovered? Some people feel that a contraption on display in a window of Ferard's jewelry store on State street could be called a perpetual motion machine.

Automatic, clock-like devices of an unusual order and mechanical skill are being shown. One of the machines keeps a small disc on its top in constant motion, whirling about. A sign verifies that it is not operated by electricity, wind or water.

25 YEARS AGO

DECEMBER 26, 1943

The Optimist club entertained 40 Junior Optimists at a turkey dinner at the YMCA, an annual custom. President Carl Roach said souvenir caps and other treats were given. The meeting was highlighted by a performance of the Junior Optimist "salsa band," Donald Chatman, Jimmy DeWitt, Bill Plutru, John Fink and Fred Miller, who were auditioned last week by Olsen and Johnson.

The club decided to invite the Ration Board to its dinner dance in January.

Arthur Roseman, scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop Two for the past 22 years, will continue in that capacity during 1944. Of these four, Vermont has the highest rate, 20% of the federal tax liability.

Many other states have made use of the federal system by adopting the federal definition of taxable income, but have substituted their own personal exemption allowances, tax credits and other provisions.

Age-Old Job Bias Being Countered Through Old-Age Employment Law

(Tri-City and Illinois Bar Associations)

Anyone who is inclined to take a dim view of the new law on age discrimination, on the ground that he is old already, may find some satisfaction in the provisions of the new federal anti-discrimination law.

The law is designed to prevent "arbitrary age discrimination" in the employment of persons between the ages of 40 and 65.

Employers of 25 or more persons in industries affecting commerce, and labor unions and employment agencies serving such industries, come under the jurisdiction of the Act.

In effect, a person can't be turned down for a job, fired or otherwise discriminated against because he's old, as long as he is qualified for the job on the basis of his skills, experience and performance.

Further, the use of such phrases as "young," "under 40," "recent grad," etc., in help wanted advertisements is also considered discriminatory except in special circumstances.

Exceptions are made in instances where age is a legitimate occupational qualification, or where there is a bona fide seniority system or employee benefit plan which is not a subterfuge to evade the law.

In addition, the employer is still allowed to discharge an employee for good cause—regardless of his age.

The federal law, which became effective June 12, 1968, complements an already existing state law on age discrimination. The state law applies to any employer of one or more individuals, while the federal law affects only those who employ at least 25 persons.

The Illinois law states that discrimination against older applicants or job holders is to be prohibited because it "deprives the state of its most important resource of experienced employees, adds to the number of persons receiving public assistance, and deprives older people of the dignity and status of self-support."

Since the new federal law does not displace the state statutes on this subject, complaints of hiring bias are first submitted to the Illinois Fair Employment Practices Commission.

If no relief is received, charges may be brought under the federal act 60 days after proceedings have been started under the state law.

The federal act provides for enforcement by the secretary of labor under the Fair Labor Standards Act.

However, should the secretary fail to take action, the individual may file suit—provided he first files a notice of such intent with the secretary of labor within 180 days after the alleged discriminatory act.

No actual suit cannot be filed until 60 days after the notice is filed.

Settling Tax Debts of the Famous

(Internal Revenue Service)

Q. How do you justify settling tax debts with famous people for just a fraction of what they owe when you get the full amount from the average taxpayer?

A. The same treatment is provided all taxpayers regardless of their income or amount of tax liability.

The situations where some taxpayers settle their tax obligations for less than what IRS says they owe occur with average taxpayers as well as with famous individuals, even though it does not receive the same publicity.

There are two basic situations where taxpayers settle their liability for less than the amount assessed.

One occurs when the actual amount of the tax owed is disputed by the taxpayer. In these cases, a lesser tax liability may result following a court decision on the case or a pretrial agreement between the taxpayer and IRS.

The determining factors could be the court's interpretation of the law or the availability of records the taxpayer had not previously provided.

The second situation occurs when the amount of tax due is not questioned, but the taxpayer does not have sufficient assets and income to make full payment over a reasonable period of time.

In this situation, an agreement representing the taxpayer's maximum ability to pay may be made after first determining that no greater amount can be collected by any other means.

Such agreements also provide that the taxpayer's financial situation improves, payment will be increased according to maximum ability to pay.

Q. I have a question about depreciation. A. It depends on how the tax was acquired. If the tax was raised by depreciation, then the stock can't be depreciated. The cost of raising is deducted as a farm expense. If the stock was purchased, then depreciation is the only way to recover this investment over its useful life. The cost of purchased breeding stock is not deductible in the year where it has a useful life of more than one year.

Q. I've been asked to send in records on contributions. If I do that and the records are all right, will I have to make a personal trip to your office? A. The purpose of having a taxpayer mail his records to IRS is to avoid whatever inconvenience the taxpayer may experience by having to make a personal visit to our offices. In some cases, however, the records supplied by the taxpayer are not adequate and a personal interview with the taxpayer is arranged.

Q. I want to answer your question, a personal visit to our offices will depend on the adequacy of your tax records.

Q. I want to sell some stock I own before the end of the year so that I can deduct my losses on this year's return. Does the stock actually have to be sold by the end of the year or is it enough to have notified your broker by Dec. 31?

A. On the sale of stock, the taxpayer's stock is sold at a loss is the one you should use for tax purposes. If this date, or trade date as it is sometimes called, occurs in your 1968 tax year, then the transaction can be reported on your 1968 return.

Rocket Shakes Faith in Theory Of How Universe Began Existence

(American Institute of Physics)

Measurements made from a rocket more than a hundred miles above the earth have shaken the support for a widely accepted theory of the universe.

At stake is the "big bang" theory—the idea that the universe began as an extremely dense ball of matter, exploded, and expanded to its present size.

The single rocket observation is not enough to overthrow the idea, but it is the first measurement in three years to reveal the trend of support for the theory.

The work is reported in "Physical Review Letters," a publication of The American Physical Society, by Kenneth G. Wilson and the Naval Research Laboratory, Washington, D. C., and Drs. James R. Houck and Martin H. Harvey of the Cornell, Sydney University Astronomy Center in Ithaca, N. Y.

The "big bang" theory predicts that the universe should be bathed in the residual radiation of the original explosion. The radiation should have cooled to within three degrees above absolute zero. During the past three years, astrophysicists have been measuring a background radiation, and these measurements have been interpreted by many as experimental verification of the theory.

To measure the radiation at shorter wavelengths—where the strength of the radiation from the "big bang" is expected to drop off sharply—it was necessary to send instruments above the earth's atmosphere.

In the present experiment, the astrophysicist sent up a rocket containing sensitive detectors that were cooled by liquid helium. One of the radiation detectors measured intensity that was about a hundred times stronger than that expected from the big bang. Supporters of the big bang can argue that the new measurement does not disprove their theory. They can say that the background radiation is more intense than the currently predicted three degrees at the shorter wavelength. The radiation from the sources of radiation that mask the three-degree background.

Hasse to Head Youth, Government Sessions

Charles Hasse, YMCA youth director, has been named chairman of the 20th Illinois Youth and Government sessions to be held Feb. 1 in Springfield and April 22 at Chicago.

"The Youth and Government program is the greatest program the Y can offer," Hasse said. "The teenagers in our district held six seats in the Senate in the 19th session, and Jean Graklanoff was named chaplain of the House."

Hasse also said that the teams of delegates have introduced many surprising bills in the past.

Delegates will meet with other representatives from the area to discuss and revise their bills to be presented in the Springfield meet. Delegates will attend the Chicago meet with revised bills awaiting the signature of the youth governor.

There are no immediate funds to finance the trips, and the delegates, all members of Tri-Hi-Y clubs, must raise their own expense funds. Transportation to Springfield will be in the YMCA bus.

The youth and government program was designed to help teenagers obtain a better understanding of their government and what it can do for them, Hasse said.

Foreign Students Judge American Food, Girls

What things are most "foreign" to international students attending Southern Illinois University at Carbondale?

"All food in the United States has the same taste," said a student from Mexico. "Whether it's hamburger or roast beef, it tastes the same."

When it comes to American girls, a student from El Salvador noted that "for a foreign student, how to understand his 'dates' is a difficult adjustment." An American girl, he said, may date a foreign student because she has a real interest in him or "it may be because of the international aspects involved."

He summed up American girls as "more independent and domineering than girls at home."

However, the same student concluded, an American woman, like a European, Asian, African or Latin American woman, is precisely that: a woman.

Expect 2000 Delegates At Circuit Assembly

Jehovah's Witnesses will hold a three-day circuit assembly in East St. Louis Feb. 7-9, it was announced today by their governing body, the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York.

Angelo Scaglione, 1936 Joy street, St. Louis, is the local congregation, said. "The assembly is not a revival, but it is held primarily to advance Christian Bible education. Assemblies of this type are held semi-annually and the purpose is to educate Jehovah's Witnesses in their ministry."

The three-day program will include morning, afternoon and evening sessions devoted to Bible talks, discussions and demonstrations on conducting home Bible studies. There also will be a baptism of new ministers on Saturday, Feb. 8.

Upwards of 2000 delegates are expected to attend from the surrounding area and putting congregations. Approximately 95 members of the local congregation will attend.

Announcement of the full program schedule is to be made in a few weeks. During the three-day convention, services at Kingdom Hall, 2822 Palmer avenue, will be canceled.

Carolers were Janet Webb, Lisa Heaven, Karen Varner, Athena Anderson, Debbie Farmer, Cindy York and Nickie Sellers.

The troop meets at the school each Thursday afternoon. The next meeting will be Jan. 2.

15,000 Geese Killed In S. Ill. Counties

About 15,000 geese were harvested in Alexander, Union, Williamson and Jackson counties, the Illinois Department of Conservation reported today.

The hunting season in the four southern Illinois counties closed at 3 p.m., Sunday, Dec. 22.

The Canada goose population of southern Illinois and Kentucky is the largest in the world, with more than 100,000 geese in two weeks.

State Registration Of Boats To Start

All boat operators having boat registrations that expire in 1969 will soon receive a notice to renew their certificates of registration. Notices will be mailed during the first week in January.

Certificates of number will be issued for a two-year period, expiring June 30, 1971.

Applications for renewal of certificates should be mailed to the Department of Conservation as early as possible.

THE MADISON COUNTY SPORTSMAN

By DON HASTINGS
 County Conservation Officer

Having been on a goose detail at Cairo, I missed the first three days of the recent deer season but had a bit of action the last half. The season as a whole was a success with 3 deer killed in comparison to seven last year. This is about what I had anticipated.

Seven bucks and three does were killed. Four were in the 70-pound class, three were in the 100-pound class, and two were in the 150-pound class. The season was 150 pounds, all field dressed.

One buck had nine points, one eight, two four and the rest were spines. Three deer were killed on Silver creek in the Troy-St. Jacob area, one south of Livingston, one north of Warden, and one north of Edwardsville.

Scout Locations

The locations show that they can be killed almost anywhere in the county if you scout well enough. The one above Edwardsville and the one at Godfrey were killed in places where they would not have been considered as hunting possibilities.

Two were killed in the vicinity of the Chain of Rocks canal on the Mississippi river. I think the kill will go even better in future years if we can get county hunters to spend a little more time scouting and spreading out over the county.

Highway kills occur in almost any section. Three deer were killed by cars on the Thursday night before the season opened. Last year's season was killed by cars during the first two days of the season.

Two or More Average

Ten hunters who killed deer said that they saw an average of two or more. Shots taken ran from one to seven. Time spent ran from four to more than 50 hours.

All in all, I thought it was a very good season. Personally, I was out hunting for a good year-old Don Jr. killed one in four hours in the first day he hunted. A four-pointer weighing about 117 pounds, it was a good trophy for a boy his age and

1773 Deer Bagged In Last Half of 1968 Hunt Season

Sportsmen reportedly bagged 1773 deer during the last half of the 1968 season, according to the Illinois Department of Conservation. Official figures will not be released until all records from check stations have been received and tallied.

The deer season was divided into two three-day weekends: Nov. 22-24, inclusive, and Dec. 6-8, inclusive.

The unofficial total for the entire season is 7866 whitetails. This is 1233 more than were harvested last year during a continuous six-day season. This year's total is 499 animals higher than in 1966, when hunters last had an opportunity to stalk whitetails over two week-ends.

During the last half of the season, 586 deer were taken in 19 northern Illinois counties, 500 in 26 central counties, and 587 in 28 southern counties. This was higher than it had ever been. Pope, the southern county with the reputation of being the best for deer in Illinois, had a lower harvest, as was predicted by game technicians.

A total of 568 deer were killed in Pope county this year. In 1967, 1051 were bagged, and in 1966, 1444 deer.

A 237-pound buck in Bond county was the largest deer reported killed during the last half of the season. On the hoof, this animal would have weighed about 300 pounds. The largest buck killed during the entire season was a 257-pound, field dressed, deer bagged in Mason county. The actual weight of the deer would be about 350 pounds. The largest deer ever taken in Illinois was a 360-pound animal killed in Scott county in 1960.

Father of Local Man Dies in Alton

Henry J. Hellrung, 65, of 1204 Logan street, Alton, died at 11:45 a.m. yesterday. He was a father of three, and a grandfather of five. He was a member of St. Mary's Church, Alton. He is the father of Dennis Hellrung of Granite City.

Violations, Arrests

Violations have been increasing, and so have arrests. I had a number of arrests for hunting before the season opened. Other apprehensions included hunting with a bad tag, over the duck limit and night hunting.

With the scarcity of rabbits in most places, I expect to see a strong upsurge in night hunting from autos. As in past years, I ask all the hunters to call me immediately regardless of the hour. It does little good for me to hear about it several days a week later.

I can get from rural residents who suspect this is going on in their areas.

If you see it, try to note the direction of travel, the description of the car, the license number and other information. They call me immediately regardless of the hour. It does little good for me to hear about it several days a week later.

GCHS Vs. Strong Field in Pontiac Basketball Tourney Opening Today

Defending champion Lockport Central and runnerup Chicago Heights Bloom of last year's tournament held the two seeded positions in pairings as the 38th annual Pontiac holiday basketball tournament began today. Lockport Central edged Bloom 81-79 in last year's championship game.

With one of the best balanced field of teams in recent years, tournament manager Aubrey Williamson faced a Herculean task in deciding the seedings for this year's tournament.

Granite City of the strong Southwest Conference and newcomer Normal Community, featuring a veteran lineup built around 6-9 center Bob O'Brien, were seeded No. 3 and No. 4, respectively.

GCHS will meet Prospect at 10 p.m. in the last of eight opening-round games today.

At least three other highly regarded quintets—Waukegan, Normal Community, Waukegan or Providence (Mel) are expected to be their top competition in the upper bracket.

Normal Community, with a spotted 6-0 record, carries the colors of central Illinois in the tournament. With an intact starting lineup of 1967-68 intact, the Ironmen are considered the leading darkhorse of the tournament.

VENICE RALLY DEFEATS MARISSA 73-66 TODAY

The question of whether Venice high school can capture its fourth straight O'Fallon holiday basketball tournament championship remained undecided in the Red Devils started off in good fashion this morning by defeating Marissa 73-66.

Coach William Obendorf's quintet now will set its sights on either New Athens or Brooklyn at 5 p.m. Friday at O'Fallon.

The latter two teams collided in the second game of the tourney today following Venice's thrilling triumph in the opening contest of the 16-team meet.

Friday, Saturday Outlook
 Columbia - Waterloo Gibault and Belleville East-Olin games also were carried today to complete the upper division opening round. One of these four schools will afford the opposition for Venice at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, providing the Red Devils survive the 5 p.m. Friday tilt.

However, now that Venice is tied the opening round, a defeat tomorrow would immediately end its participation. Assuming the Red Devils win a championship semifinal game at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, they will play for the title at 9 p.m. Saturday. If they are beaten Sunday afternoon, they will vie for third place at 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

Lower division teams which could furnish the opposition in the championship or third-place contest are paired as follows today: Freeburg-Valmeyer 5 p.m., Sandoval-Highland 6:30 p.m., O'Fallon-Wilmington 8 p.m. and Alton Marquette-Lebanon 9 p.m.

Funeral services for the retired Illinois Terminal Railroad supervisor are scheduled for 9 a.m. Saturday at St. Mary's Church, Alton.

Four in at Warden, Other Tourneys Open

The attention of Quad-City high school basketball fans is focused this week on Pontiac, Breese Mater Dei and O'Fallon, where holiday tournaments are in progress.

But other Christmas tourneys also are slated, involving teams that figure prominently in the 1968-69 schedules of the three local teams.

An example is Edwardsville, which will host its own holiday meet beginning today. The Tigers defeated GCHS 14-11 weekend to oust the Warriors at least temporarily from first place in the Southwest Conference.

Edwardsville Schedule

Edwardsville pairings today are Bunker Hill-Jerseyville at 1 p.m., Decatur-MacArthur at 2 p.m., CDC at 2:45 p.m., Springfield-Triad (Troy, St. Jacob and Marine) at 6:45 p.m. and Litchfield-Edwardsville at 8:30 p.m.

Losers will play at 1 p.m. and 2:45 p.m. Friday and winners will collide at 6:45 and 8:30 p.m. Friday. The consolation final is set for 6 p.m. Saturday, third-place game at 7 p.m. Saturday and championship play at 9:30 p.m. Saturday.

Belleville West will oppose Stephen Decatur high school of Edwardsville at 10:30 p.m. (championship finals), 10 p.m.

Mathews, Bowland In Holiday Tourney

Granite City park district Classic League-Edwardsville Chevrolet will be among 10 teams in the East St. Louis YMCA holiday basketball tournament to be played at the Signal Hill grade school gym starting this evening. Bowland (2-0) of Granite City will face the Argenta (0-4) of Yorkville.

Mathews, the other local entry, will play tomorrow at 7 p.m. against the winner of the Palmer Auto Parts vs. Mobil Oil game. It has completed a 4-0 Classic League record as well as a 3-2 record in the tough Wohl league in St. Louis.

A win tonight for Bowland would mean that it would play again at 7 p.m. Saturday. A loss would mean an 8 p.m. Saturday consolation game.

The tournament includes the leading teams from Belleville, Collinsville and the Industrial and Commercial league of the East St. Louis YMCA.

Players for Mathews will be Carl Wortham, Elmer Wortham, Frank Knight, George Ziegler, John Campbell, Patrick, Bob Patrick, Bill Evans, Doug Winfield, Larry Williams and Neil Probst.

Players for Bowland will be Joe Graboski, Chuck Summers, Al Fanning, Mike Schutte, Glen Sprankle, Mike Trytan and Roger Blackshire.

Goal By Scott Wins 61-59, MHS Advances

Winning in the last second of play after trailing by 13 points at halftime, the Madison Trojans basketball team defeated the Argenta 61-59 this morning in the opening game of the Breese Mater Dei high school holiday tournament.

MHS will next play today's Oakville-Mascoutah winner at 1 p.m. Friday, possibly setting the stage for a semifinal game at 2:30 p.m. Saturday and either the third-place tilt at 7:15 p.m. Saturday or the title game at 9:30 p.m. Saturday.

The winning basket was made by Jim Scott on a six-foot jump shot set up for him in the 'right lane.

Eight Seconds of Drama
 Previous to this play, with the score tied 59-59, Madison had obtained possession of the ball from a jump with eight seconds remaining in the game. Coach Bob Page outlined the play for the Trojans and they executed it with perfection.

MORE ABOUT New Board

Associates for consulting engineering services at the rate of $400 a month for the past 10 months. Fry pointed out there was nothing in the city budget for engineering, as a specified amount had been taken out last summer before the current budget was adopted.

Approval was given, over objection by Alderman Rutledge, for transfer of $2247 from the parking meter fund to the street department to pay for curb and sidewalk repairs in the downtown business district.

Rutledge said approval of the resolution would pave the way for further transfers from the parking meter reserves to pay for other improvement work designated by aldermen throughout the city.

Mayor Partney explained the funds being transferred would pay for improvements only in the parking meter district for projects needed to upgrade the downtown district.

Fry also argued that such action would "open the door" to the parking meter reserve that heretofore had been used only for operation of the meters, payment of traffic officers' salaries and held as a reserve for any emergencies. Rutledge, Fry and Jarrett opposed the transfer.

Sales Tax Transfer

With adoption of still another resolution, the council transferred $3257 from the sales tax reserve to special improvements to pay for a curb and gutter project in the 2600 block of Center street. Only Rutledge opposed the transfer.

Copies of a resolution adopted Nov. 25 by the council seeking relief on a state level from the numerous injury claims filed against the city are to be forwarded to the Illinois Municipal Problems Commission and the Illinois Municipal League at the suggestion of Rep. Ralph T. Smith (R) Alton, house speaker.

The city had sent a copy of the resolution to Smith, asking for his assistance during next month's legislative session. Smith advised the council in a letter read Monday night that the best procedure would be to go through the two agencies, and he offered his support for the immunity measure for the city.

An inquiry was made by Alderman Boyd as to the status of Mayor Partney's appeal of a circuit court decision that had upheld the council's selection of its own committees. The council has been functioning without committees since June.

Mayor Partney replied the appeal had been filed with the clerk of the Appellate Court at Mr. Vernon, but that he had not received any notice on when the court might act. Rutledge added that he had received a notice that the appeal suit had been filed.

An objection was made by Alderman Nunn, who called upon Mayor Partney to determine why Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. was changing the number of a television repair shop in Lincoln Place. "Several other businesses are involved, and this will cause great inconvenience," the alderman said.

A spokesman for the telephone company told the Press-Record the change is needed because of a switch in a bank of equipment at the central office to expand the Glenview exchange service and that the numbers for 100 patrons will be involved. "It will not be done until next August—after the new directories are furnished, the phone company official said.

Phoney Business Schemes Can Be Costly

Postal inspectors probing business opportunity schemes which could violate mail fraud laws are reporting an increase in the number of companies selling pyramid-type distributorships to small investors, according to notice received here by Postmaster W. T. Overbeck from Postmaster-General W. Marvin Watson.

Overbeck said that Watson warned that "fraudulent multi-level distributorships can hurt many thousands of investors. In many ways they are like a chain letter, except the stakes are much higher."

The postmaster general pointed out, Overbeck said, that "in a typical illegal pyramid scheme, families with savings from $200 to $10,000 are lured into buying a distributorship for a 'fabulous new product' which can bring them five and six-figure incomes."

But to achieve success, Watson reported, the small investor is told he must recruit sub-distributors or retailers.

Victim Rarely Complains
"And once the victim is trapped, he rarely complains," Watson said. "Too often the new distributor can keep his investment by recruiting others into the scheme."

According to Watson's report to Overbeck, the pyramid type of distributorship is one of three major types of business opportunity schemes which can be a violation of mail fraud laws. The others usually involve misrepresentations in selling vending machine routes and franchises for marketing goods or services.

Those using the mails directly or indirectly to further a fraudulent scheme are subject to mail fraud statutes and penalties of up to five years in prison and fines of $1000 for each count. At present 150 questionable schemes are under investigation.

Henry B. Montague, chief postal inspector, said the recent conviction of the National Marketing Association's officers indicates that penalties can also be severe for promoters who defraud. The president of the Tulsa, Okla. firm which lured about 400 investors of $200 to $1000 was sentenced to ten years in prison. In that case investors were told they could earn $15,000 a year as distributors of a "miraculous" cleaning solvent. The victims were reassured by claims that their investment was secured with inventory at a commercial warehouse, and they received impressive looking, but phoney, warehouse receipts.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

Once an investment had been made, the investor was urged to bring in his friends which provided him with a share of his recruits' investments and an override on all of their cleaning solution sales.

Watson told Overbeck that inspectors have found that the typical "come-on" in a vending machine swindle is an ad in the help-wanted columns seeking men or women to service coin-operated machines on either a full or part-time basis.

Those answering the ad are then approached by high-pressure salesmen who induce them to buy vending units by falsely claiming they can earn big profits. Salesmen often promise that a trained factory representative will arrange suitable locations, but if they are obtained at all they generally are the poorest sort and the investor discovers the company did not pay the applicable license fees. Sometimes fine vending machines are sold at exorbitant prices.

Promised Big Profits
In a recent case, where the promoter received a three-year sentence, victims were paying $100 for hot-nut vending units that cost the promoter $17. The $100 seemed small to the investor. He was promised profits of from $200 to $425 depending upon location.

The success of the legitimate franchising industry also has meant new opportunities for fraud. Recently small town contractors were given a chance to share in the swimming pool construction boom by becoming franchised dealers for a number of firms with glamorous names.

Three inter-related Colorado corporations operated by 11 promoters lured small contractors to Denver by falsely promising pool construction boom. There, the tradesman was told he had a competitor for the franchise in his area, but that he could have the franchise by signing up immediately.

Cost Dealer $12,000
The new swimming pool dealer was then told he must buy at least six swimming pool kits at $2000 each. If he didn't have the $12,000, the promoters set for $500 advance each pool with the COD balance when the units were delivered.

But the boom passed the new dealers by. There was no advertising and promised orders from local families failed to materialize.

Chief Inspector Montague recommends that the small investor determine if an opportunity is legitimate by:

1. Be wary if the promoters are more interested in selling a distributorship than they are a product or service.
2. Ask those selling vending machine routes or franchises for the names and addresses of those making "fabulous profits."
3. Ask to see their business records and interview those actually operating a franchise.
4. Check the company with Better Business Bureau.
5. Be skeptical of promotions involving new products or fads.

BABSON

in the older types. Note, too, that the stress will be on expensive technological devices... requiring highly skilled man-power and labor.

Space Revival—We have made great strides in space penetration... despite our setbacks from Southeast Asia.

Yet, our progress has lacked the impetus of the early years after Sputnik.

Just now, recurring reports indicate a real likelihood that Russia will score a significant "space spectacular"... probably sometime soon.

Should this be the case, we foresee a new surge of spending on more massive boosters and on more refined vehicles.

The issue of "guns or butter" will persist throughout 1969. Too much attention to either or both could well lead to a price-wage spiral in our economy... with all the threat of a deflationary plunge thereafter.

INFLATION

STILL INCUBATING
Nineteen sixty-eight will go down in economics histories as

"the year of the great boo-boo."

Early it was recognized that the economy was overheating... that a cooling off was necessary to prevent runaway price boosts and the inevitable aftermath of recession.

The government opted for a fiscal "wet blanket" to smother the inflationary fires... and belatedly the surtax on personal and corporate income was enacted, effective mid-1968.

But the boom rolled on... confounding both the Federal Reserve... and the President's Council of Economic Advisors.

What happened? Two things: (1) The Fed thought the surtax would cause "overkill" in business, so opened the money spigots wider... stimulating buying just when the tax was supposed to depress it. (2) Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Public shared their rate of savings and went on a buying binge... augmenting their fling with big jobs of borrowed money.

More to Come—So, here we are: Months after the "tax to kill inflation," prices and services are still spiraling upward. This, of course, goads the workingman to support his labor boss when he hears outside hikes in pay and benefits.

Even though the Fed now gives signs of having moved to lessen the money rise from gusher rate to a more gentle flow, the floods of prior months will continue to seep through business and financial channels... at least during the early part of 1969.

Our staff here at Babson's Reports looks for "more of the same" during the first half of the year.

Higher prices, further wage raises in excess of productivity gains, continued up-pressure on costs all around, and the inexorable fattening of the tax burden—not alone from the perennial upswipe of state and local levies, but also from the substantial step-rate in Social Security charges.

Indeed, inflation is still incubating. The virus is virulent.

The antitoxin is known. But the political medicines who will administer it have not yet come forth.

Number One Problem—Mr. Nixon knows that inflation is the one force that can destroy this nation—financially, morally, even militarily.

He also knows that to move aggressively against it could plunge the U.S. into a depression. The latter state might be worse than the former.

It seems likely, then, that he will move slowly against the incubus of perpetually climbing costs and prices.

Fortunately, the incoming President has the advantage of the anti-inflationary moves made in the late days of President Johnson's tenure. We expect that he will move cautiously to augment these.

As a result, we look for a spectacular attack on the country's number one enemy in the opening days of Nixon's office. That means there will be further portents of inflation early next year... later in 1969 you can look for many signs of a tipping off, even maybe some deflationary signals.

STRONG START FOR DOLLAR

Unlike a year earlier—when the dollar wavered under suspicion and attack—the "good ole buck" will start 1969 with a halo over it.

The big bad wolf—President de Gaulle of France—who led an all-out offensive against the dollar in 1967 and early 1968, is now pretty "dead" insofar as any lethal threat to it in 1969 is concerned.

His own franc had to have a good many blowout patches applied at the end of 1968 to keep it afloat.

It is not that the dollar has gained any real fundamental strength in recent months; rather it is that the pound and the franc got so weak that, by contrast, the dollar gained stature.

Excellent cooperation with the U.S. by Germany has caused the deficit in our international payments to all but disappear. Then, too, our nation did move toward fiscal restraint when it enacted the surtax.

Finally, with the pound sick and the franc tottering, the other stable currency areas such as the German, Swiss and Dutch just did not have sufficient size and room to accommodate all those financial refugees who might have been seeking shelter.

Could Be Only Temporary—But it is too early yet to crow. Our dollar may still fall victim to a recurrence of the persistent weakness in our international payments position that has marked our relationship with the rest of the Free World for 90% of the last two decades.

Actually the late-half 1968 strength in our balance of payments has not been the result of an improvement in our trade or payments position.

Its good health then was more apparent than real... resulting from financial transactions, capital movements toward our shores—some of them flights from the currency ills of Europe, some for speculation in our stock markets, some "deals" between our Treasury and German financial institutions from getting too strong and the dollar too weak.

Barring cataclysmic developments on the military front, the dollar should occasion us no great concern in 1969.

However, the Babson prediction still stands... that the dollar may be living on probation, even on borrowed time, if the new Administration lets prices and costs run wild... or even if it cracks down too hard on inflation, touching off a recession.

The things it must do: (1) Keep the federal budget close to balance. (2) Persuade the money managers to maintain a moderate, not too stimulating increase in the money stock. (3) Crack down on speculative excesses. (4) Curb the underlying causes of our deficits in international payments... namely, faltering exports, soaring imports, non-competitive (with nations abroad) prices and costs which are the faults of both business and management leaders.

The dollar is now in the "grey" of a tremendous national and international inflationary hurricane. Its respite will be but temporary.

To bring it through the "other side" in late 1969 or 1970 will be a Herculean task for the new Administration.

Indeed, Mr. Nixon and his advisers will have to do a veritable "tightrope act" above the Scylla of inflation on the one side and the Charybdis of disinflation on the other; 1969 will witness the first scenes of the act.

BUSINESS TO SCALE

NEW PEAKS IN 1969
The momentum built by rising business volumes and production will surely carry the usual measurements of Gross National Product and the Federal Reserve Index of Production into new all-time high ground in the year 1969.

But that is not the whole story. What you want to know is what the rate of gain will be and what the shape of the year, businesswise, will look like.

Gross National Product—Total dollar value of all goods and services finished in 1968 on a strong note... at nearly a $20 billion gain. That is only slightly less than the best 1968 quarter of $22 billion.

Prospects now favor a good further boost in the first 1969 quarter... perhaps equivalent to the 1968 advance of the third 1968 stretch.

The second quarter of next year may slip a bit from the first, but the upcoming half year will show a climb in dollar values perhaps only $3-$4 billion below the great bulge of a year earlier.

Assuming no dropping of the surtax, we look for a lesser rate of gain in the first 1969 half... another big year, but tapering as it wears along. Over all, expect a GNP upthrust over 1968 of close to 7% (about $60 billion).

Physical Volume—Physical output is not expected to match the dollar value of increase in 1969... not surprising, as more than half of the looked-for improvement will result from higher prices.

Assuming the Federal Reserve average index of Production averages around 165 for 1968, we project about a 4-point climb in the year ahead.

But again, we think the best will be seen early in 1969.

Capital Outlays—Despite a continuing depressed rate of plant utilization, business managers are projecting increased budgets for new plant and equipment.

Look for a strong start—perhaps as high as an 8% increase—to be followed by a slower rate of gain as the year ages. For all of 1969, a 4% betterment would seem about the best to expect.

Profits—Total corporate profits in the first half of 1969 will outdistance those of the earlier period... they may even equal the strong final six months of 1968.

Here again, however, squeezed by inflationary costs and somewhat less boisterous demand, new Administration—Another group that does not seem to have exhausted its investment potential is the containers... though they are not as cheap as they were a year ago.

Our choice in this field would be Continental Can.

Fertilizers—After a long and painful stretch of being "put through the wringer," there are now some signs that moderately more profitable days may lie ahead for the plant-food makers.

International Minerals & Chemical—with vast potential raw materials resources on

ANOTHER HIGH IN COMMON STOCKS

The buy-stocks - to - protect against inflation - "bug" has become a stock-buying formula is the best antidote for soaring living costs.

New common stock-oriented institutions are being formed "a mile a minute." Foreign investors are flocking back to U.S. securities markets. And corporate sales and earnings trends are supporting the convictions of the multiplying herds of bulls.

On pure momentum alone, we anticipate new all-time highs in the Dow Industrials, as well as in the more comprehensive averages, during the forepart of 1969.

If such does occur, however, we shall have our "fingers crossed" about the course of stocks during the time after mid-year... especially if market "fireworks" becomes particularly brilliant in the early 1969 days.

Under these circumstances, cautious selecting may pay bigger dividends in 1969 than "playing the field."

Farm Equipments—One group that has hardly gotten off the ground in 1968 has been the agricultural machinery makers.

Some good long-range values exist here in issues such as Deere and International Harvester.

Conglomerates—The big multiple-activity companies have certainly failed to shine in the year now closing.

Some issues may hold low risk for investors with patience. Among such are Textron, Gulf & Western Industries, and TRW Inc.

Chemicals—This once-favorite of securities fans has again passed a year in the market doldrums.

Some indications of a turn-in-the-making are beginning to appear.

We feel there is not too much risk in old-line concerns like Allied Chemical and Union Carbide at recent levels.

Containers—Another group that does not seem to have exhausted its investment potential is the containers... though they are not as cheap as they were a year ago.

Our choice in this field would be Continental Can.

Fertilizers—After a long and painful stretch of being "put through the wringer," there are now some signs that moderately more profitable days may lie ahead for the plant-food makers.

Carus Manuscripts on Hand at SIU Library

The largest collection of manuscripts as yet acquired by the Morris Library of Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, has been deposited in the university archives by the Carus family of LaSalle, Ill.

The collection of some 60,000 letters and manuscripts represents the archives of Dr. Paul Carus, philosopher and editor, and the Open Court Publishing Co. at LaSalle, which he made "the most important publishing center for philosophy in America for more than 30 years," according to Ralph E. McCoy, director of libraries.

The greater part of the unpublished manuscripts in the collection consists of Carus' correspondence from 1887 to 1913. In addition there are files of manuscripts in various stages of preparation for publication, galley proofs, and original art work for book illustrations.

Carus papers, under the agreement with the Carus family, are to be available to qualified scholars without regard to university affiliation, McCoy said.

New Program For Issuing Search Warrants Urged

A proposal that all search warrants required in police cases be made out in the state's attorney's office at Edwardsville has been advanced by State's Atty. R. W. Griffith as another phase in a revised program of procedure in the handling of criminal cases.

In a notice sent to all Madison county law enforcement officials, magistrates and circuit judges explaining a plan for weekly grand jury sessions, the state's attorney's office said:

"The law concerning search warrants is rapidly changing and we would like to make out in Edwardsville. With respect to complaints on felonies, we would appreciate it if you would obtain the approval of one of the members of the state's attorney's office."

Police officials were notified further that "it is also the desire of this office to be advised immediately of every serious crime, particularly those involving force or violence, and any white collar workers. We are not trying to usurp the investigation of these cases, but we feel that we could be of assistance."

A new policy of handling criminal felony cases by Griffith's office was outlined before the Madison county board of supervisors last week by Marshall Smith, new assistant state's attorney for civil matters.

He said a grand jury will be called each Friday to hear evidence in criminal cases and return indictments or no true bills, a procedure that would eliminate many preliminary hearings.

Griffith's notice also asked police departments throughout the county to provide his office with copies of the entire investigation in criminal cases as well as a copy of the complaint. This will provide the office with sufficient information to take up a case immediately it is scheduled, the notice said.

In addition, Griffith said, court days in Granite City on Mondays and Fridays will be requested of the magistrates, with Madison and Venice cases to be included on these dockets.

SIU Ranks 20th Among Nation's Universities

Southern Illinois University now ranks as the nation's 20th largest school in terms of full-time resident students, according to the annual enrollment survey published in "School and Society" Magazine.

"That marks a one-position jump for SIU, which was listed 21st last year in the survey's listing of the 'Big 30' universities. The study is conducted by Garland Parker of the University of Cincinnati."

SIU also gained in the "Big 30" listing of schools by total enrollment, which includes extension and other part time students. With a grand total enrollment of 33,386 at its two campuses, SIU ranks 23rd in the U. S. Last year it was 27th.

The University of Illinois ranks ninth in fulltime student enrollment. It is the only Illinois school besides SIU in the top 30.

Listed behind SIU in order are Puerto Rico, Tennessee, Louisiana State, Kent State, Brigham Young, Wayne State, Iowa, Ohio U., Massachusetts and the University of Cincinnati.

The mammoth State University of New York—a system of several campuses—is ranked first, with 159,153 fulltime students.

Driver License Form Limited After Jan. 1

Only those applications received directly from the Secretary of State's office will be honored for renewal of driver licenses after Jan. 1, Secretary of State Paul Powell announced.

Powell said that field applications, meaning those which can be picked up at auto dealers, currency exchanges, notaries and similar outlets no longer will be accepted.

The procedure change becomes necessary because of the re-examination program which also goes into effect Jan. 1, under which all drivers will be re-examined every nine years.

As the office has done for the past three years, renewal notice will be sent to each driver about 30 days prior to expiration of his license. In addition, those drivers who are to be examined will receive a notice to that effect. Drivers who fail to receive a renewal notice may request forms from the local drivers license examining station or write to the Drivers License Division in Springfield.

In requesting forms, drivers should give their full names, addresses, birth dates and driver license numbers.

Not shown is Betty Trobaugh, telephone operator, who also was present.
